

Garrett Engeset

Communications Specialist

253.350.6683*cell*

gengeset@hudsonlake.com

Garrett Engeset has been an integral part in assisting clients with issues managements and workplace communications. He also provides effective and efficient online strategies that promote engagement through internal and external communications.

Prior to joining HudsonLake, Garrett was Director of Marketing at Medica Pharmacy & Wellness Center where he developed and executed multifaceted campaigns for social media strategies, brand development and public relations for all Medica locations. He established relationships with prominent healthcare figures and promoted health initiatives in the community. Garrett also served as a panelist at the Pharmacy Development Services annual meeting and shared his expertise and innovative strategies.

Garrett holds a B.S. in marketing from the University of Idaho.