Having joined HudsonLake in 2011, Jared Engeset provides clients with solutions to their strategic communications needs, including the areas of issues and crisis management, workplace communications and corporate campaigns. Jared also lends his digital expertise to assist clients in developing online solutions through websites and various online tools.

Prior to joining HudsonLake, Jared worked at the U.S. Chamber of Commerce in the Political Affairs and Federation Relations Division for more than four years. There he played a key role in advancing the Chamber's nonprofit professional development program through the creation and implementation of social media strategies and integration of new technologies. Jared also helped grow the Chamber's grassroots program by advocating Chamber programs and policies at various events around the country.

Jared's previous experience also includes serving in the Washington, D.C., congressional office of former Representative Brian Baird (WA-03), and in the D.C. and Seattle, WA, offices of APCO Worldwide.

A native of Washington State, Jared holds a Master's of Public Policy from George Mason University and a B.A. and B.S. from the University of Washington.
